Interested in academic funding for a master's degree and a career in the Foreign Service traveling the world and protecting U.S. diplomacy? Come to this virtual info session to hear about the William D. Clarke, Sr. Diplomatic Security (Clarke DS) Fellowship – a two-year graduate fellowship program funded by the U.S. Department of State.

This diversity fellowship/recruitment program leads to a career in the Foreign Service as a Diplomatic Security Service Special Agent in the Bureau of Diplomatic Security – the federal law enforcement security bureau of the Department of State.

The Clarke DS Fellowship is accepting applications for the 2024 cohort from July through September. If you are planning to enter a full-time master's degree program in fall 2024, join us for a 30-minute virtual info session to hear about the eligibility requirements and benefits of this unique fellowship.
