

Forensic Science and Society

Spring 2020

Forensic Science Graduate Lecture Series open to the public

Learn about global efforts to combat crime and how forensic science is applied in international collaborations or assistance programs.

TIME: Tuesday from 3:45pm to 4:45pm.

PLACE: New Building, 5th floor; room 05.67.00; opposite North Side elevator

DATES: February 11th, 2020

Sarah Chu, MS, MS; Innocence Project, New York, NY
Reimagining Forensic Science: Integrating the Duty to Correct and Notify

March 10th, 2020

Steven Wassermann, JD, PhD; Legal Aid Society New York, NY
Forensic Science: Foundation of Integrity in the Criminal Justice Process

March 31st 2020

Susan Xenarios, LCSW; Founder/Former Director, Crime Victims Treatment Center, NYC
The Sexual Assault Forensic Examination Movement in New York City

April 28th, 2020

Anna Parkinson, PhD; Northwestern University, Evanston, IL
Grave Matters: Between Expert Opinion and Human Rights Literature

Coffee and snacks will be served.

Any questions please contact:

Mechthild Prinz, mprinz@jjay.cuny.edu

